Puppies are a lot of work so you may want to read this before deciding to adopt one.

Adopting a puppy

First, you will want to decide what breed you want to adopt.

After you have decided what breed you want to adopt you also need to decide where you want to adopt a puppy you can adopt a puppy from a shelter or a breeder.

Shelters

You can adopt a puppy from a shelter or a breeder but right now we'll talk about shelters. Some shelters you might already know about, like the SPCA or the Humane Society.

SPCA

The SPCA is an animal shelter. SPCA stands for Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals

Working Dogs

Working Dogs are dogs like the Dalmatian or the German Shepard. The Dalmatian is also called a fire house dog because they often use Dalmatians as fire house dogs. Police departments often use German Shepards as Police dogs.

Guide Dogs

Guide dogs are used for people who are blind and can't see. Golden Retrievers are often used as guide dogs. Training a guide dog takes a long time, maybe even a few years!!!
